We are an extremely happy, high achieving and popular junior school. Come and be part of a friendly and dedicated team of staff on our exciting journey.

In recent years we have hosted inspections by Ofsted and SIAMS. Feedback from both is glowing.

Whilst the successful candidate would ideally work full-time, we will also consider a job-share arrangement.

We are looking for someone who:

- is a highly motivated, talented teacher, good or outstanding in their classroom practice
- demonstrates high expectations for the achievement and behaviour of all our children through creativity and an inspiring curriculum
- enjoys working as part of a team to share and benefit from each other's skills and experiences
- reflects on their own practice and welcomes ongoing professional dialogue and development
- supports our Christian ethos and values

In return we can offer you:

- happy, well behaved pupils who enjoy learning and aspire to great things
- a vibrant school culture which embraces the whole child and promotes high standards through independent and creative learning
- an attractive, well-resourced school and grounds close to the Surrey Hills Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty
- a caring place of work where individual talent is appreciated, personal growth is encouraged through an excellent programme of CPD, and work life balance is valued
- excellent partnerships between pupils, staff, parents, governors and the wider community built on mutual respect
